REVIEWS

"The intro of the song right way captured my attention. Then a bright feeling guitar solo hits me, giving me a beautiful, soulful and peaceful rhythms. The compositions of instruments are just can be said as gorgeous! This song is a perfect song for your leisure time. Love it!"

"The beat is very chill. I like how the song starts off very slow and almost soft and how it progresses and changes throughout. I think the instrumentals are just perfect throughout the whole song. The only thing I think is that it starts to become a bit boring because there are no vocals and the track is so long."

"this song has soft instrumentals, they are sweet and have a nice melody. the acoustic guitar incorporated in adds a romantic sound, and is played by someone very talented. although there are no lyrics in this, all of the instrumentals are great, and this still conveys quite a lot of emotion even without words. this very beautifully recorded and put together."

"Sounds to sad at the beginning. I wouldnt download this song . I would probably skip it bot knowing there is or isnt a chorus . But in the middle its very relaxing . Can be used for ballet very slow and soothing . The music flows beautifully . And i would like to hear more from this artist "

"i like the progressive ballad type style of this music. i like the heavier and louder melody and i feel it is very catchy. i like the guitar added and it comes in at a really good time. i like the beat to this track as well."

"The audio quality needs some work. It's a little buzz-y, and some of the notes sound too sharp and loud. The sound isn't really consistent, and the volume seems to randomly jump between quiet and loud. I also feel like it's really lacking something without vocals. The guitar is really nice, though. I like that part a lot."

"Electric guitars and normal guitars are instruments that i love in any song, so i really enjoyed listening to this calming instrumental. The piano also sounds beautiful, and the classic guitars also play a role in setting a nice mood for the listener. A very nice melody so i give it a big thumbs up."

"This song has a pretty arrangement of sounds and utilizes soulful instrumental sounds to give it depth and style. There's an upbeat and inspirational melody to it that is pleasant and enjoyable. The song does become slightly repetitive, but there's a really nice guitar piece introduced in the middle of the song that breaks up the monotony."

"This song is close to being on the longer side but not quite there. The introduction was pretty good with a nice beat to it and I liked the strings of the guitar that had come into play and the change of the piano tune. Overall this is one of the best instrumental songs Ive heard."

"The instrumentals were very well done, and had a sweet sound to them, like a wedding. I liked the beat and the whole rhythm of it, it was very enjoyable. Overall a very good song that I would recommend to people. Wonderful beat and instrumentals."

"I think the instrumental is mellow & soft. I think the instrumental have mexican beats. I think the instrumental beat is creative. I think the beats are on point. I think the beat have volume to em. I think the instrumental have major good beats. I think the instrumental is a good match with lyrics that match the beats."

"It starts calming and relaxing. I think that its rhythm could be better but melody i okay. Again, they should add a singer because i dont like this tipe of songs, but i understand what they have done here so i will give it solid 7 out of 10."

"Cool way of starting the instrumenal it sounds amazing to the ears. Just wish theur were vocals to go along with this perfect instrumental it's really good. I can tell the production of this was done right and not lazy like others do nowadays in music."

"The instruments in this piece music is excellent and played skillful and with passion. The vocals are also good and sung with passion and energy. The vocals and instruments goes together really well. The vocals and instruments compliments each other. This is a good song."

"Beginning catches my attention it's upbeat but also pretty. I love the different mix of instruments in the background. Considering that there's no vocals it is still a very beautiful and calming song. I would definitely listen to it again. It might be a little bit too long still. People can get bored easily from longer songs."

"this sounds a really pretty island type song. I like the guitar playing and the random instruments mixed in with it. This sounds really pretty and well done. great recorded. This instrumental is very beautiful sounding and came out really well. Great job on this song."

"the beat is nice intro has a cool melodny. the voice should express more feeling but the gutari and bass solo is great so cool very different how it was stuck soundnow it so clear the piano is a nice touch it. i love it!!"

"Nice long smooth intro by the keyboard. And then here come the guitar, which sound very good, sound selection, how the guitar played, melody of the song, and there is this piano variation on the song, which add richness to the song. Love this instrumental song"

"The piano playing in this song is nicely done. I like the flow it has in the intro. The guitar strumming is very good sounding. The beat of this is kind of sentimental. I see this being played in a sad movie scene. I think you did exceptional work on this piece! Wow"

"This song is great. The vocals are amazing and it keeps the beat and tempo throughout the song. The production of this song is really good. This song could go viral in no time not only that but you could get alot of money off of it."

"This song sounds brilliantly and brings up my goosebumps automatically for a bit. The production is marvelous. The instrument is great with the guitar string, the cripsy picking sounds drunken me already. The vocal is not needed here. I rate this song an 10 out of 10."

"The intro was really long. The beat was a little slow and unoriginal. The song is kind of boring and uninspiring, and is kind of dull. The song seems to just be thrown together like in a rush. There is no structure to the song."

"Beautiful combination of melodies. Enviromental sounds makes it sounds fresher and the piano and guitar one coming behind the other gives it more life to the instrumental. The different scales used in the outro show proffesionalism on the creation of master composition, simply a wonderful job."
